

DARKNESS TO LIGHT

Darkness to light, a road in life we travel,
As its perplexities we try to unravel.
Worry and sorrow are constant companions.
Pain and doubt vie to be champions.
Those homeless and in poverty struggle to survive,
The sick and broken spirited are difficult to revive,
Yet God's love reaches out to all who believe,
Our trials and sufferings He wants to relieve.
He too has suffered, His body broken.
His death and resurrection, the ultimate token
Of God's great love for all of humanity,
Freely given, constant, both now and for all eternity.
